Dear

STATINTL

We were happy to receive your application, pursuant to the talk that you had with [redacted] and me during our visit last month to the campus. I am glad to be able to advise you that your qualifications have been reviewed and that we have a spot for you which we think you will find much to your liking. The position for which we propose to process you is a GS-8 with a salary of $5,470, a notch better than you had indicated on your application. We have asked the Office of Personnel to begin the processing of your application at this grade and pay.

This is only an informal note. You will receive soon a formal response from our Director of Personnel. Meanwhile, congratulations on the show of perseverance that was involved in completing the long and complicated Personal History Statement!

If you have any questions as time goes on, please feel free to drop me a line relative to questions of substance. Questions relating to administrative matters would best be directed to the Office of Personnel.

You might be interested in the attached statement which our Director, Mr. Allen W. Dulles, gave to the Joint Economic Committee as an example of the sort of job we are occasionally called on to assist in.

STATINTL

Sincerely,
